REMARKS

25X1

1. On 20 February, the barracks installations and other military quarters in Eberswalde were occupied to capacity. Between 14 and 20 February, troops were engaged in basic infantry training, firing practice and maintenance duty in the barracks installations. Firing was daily heard from the target ranges east of Trammer Chaussee and south of the Schuetzen Kaserne.
2. Between 16 and 18 February, a large-scale exercise involving units from the Schuetzen Kaserne (4342) and Britz cantonment (4301) may have been conducted in the area north of Eberswalde. [REDACTED] five columns left the west section of the Schuetzen Kaserne [REDACTED] on 16 February:

[redacted] Comment. It is possible that a headquarters exercise of the Fourth Gds Mech Army was held in the area north or northeast of Eberswalde [redacted]

[redacted] The return to the Schuetzen Kaserne of units of the AAA division is not unusual as elements of the division have frequently been identified in the barracks installation, probably in connection with the army headquarters.
